RE: Motion for Summary Judgment
Case #: 18-CV-3122

Dear Mr. Fetzer,

I reviewed your "motion for summary judgment". It appears that you have not filed the required proposed findings of fact. I will not consider your motion complete until and unless you file that pleading. Although you state the other defendants, "join in this motion," that statement is inadequate. You are not allowed to make that representation as it constitutes the unauthorized practice of law. You may only represent yourself. Furthermore, I understand the challenge of proceeding without training in the law. I will not indulge the same where it comes to Attorneys Petale and Peterson. Presumably both of these lawyers understand the requirements of this court and the law applicable to summary judgment.

Please file your proposed findings of fact within the next 10 says. A copy of the courts' standing order is attached for your review.

Sincerely,

Frank D. Remington, Judge

 - b. After each paragraph, there must be a reference to the evidentiary basis per sec. 802.08(3), Wis. Stats. such as a deposition, discovery, pleading or affidavit.
3. Thirty days after service of the motion for dispositive judgment OR the date set by the Court in a briefing schedule, any party opposing a pending motion for dispositive judgment shall serve and file:
 - a. A response to the moving party's Proposed Undisputed Facts, and
